Editor, News and Features, CNET UK

Rich Trenholm is the Digital Camera and Camcorder Reviewer for CNET UK. He divides his time between authoritative, accessible product reviews, assured video presenting, and tenuous jokes about '80s cartoons in the daily Crave gadget blog.

Rich began his journalistic career at university, writing about music and film before becoming Students' Union Communications Officer. He has also worked at scientific journals covering genetics and microbiology, but prefers comics about dinosaurs.
