

Jason Jenkins

Editor, CNET UK

Jason has been writing about technology for nearly a decade, and has been passionate about gadgets since he played with his beloved Sinclair Spectrum as a child. He has tested virtually every product under the sun and drives his partner mad by cluttering up the house with the latest 'life changing gizmos'.

Jason has a regular technology slot with the BBC, has written for the broadsheets and has spoken on a wide range of tech-related issues at conferences in the UK and abroad. Before joining CNET UK, he worked for the gadget magazine T3 and computing mag Personal Computer World.

About CNET UK

Each month, CNET UK (www.cnet.co.uk) offers help and advice to millions of people who are passionate about technology and enables them to explore, discuss and use consumer electronics to enhance their digital lives. By engaging with authoritative product reviews, entertaining podcasts, blogs, videos and software downloads, our users discover and share opinions about the technology they use every day.

CNET UK is the market leader in its field, and our team of expert editors pride themselves on offering our users unbiased advice on which products to buy and how to get the most out of the consumer electronics they already own.
